

Shaw Guild Privacy Policy

The Shaw Guild collects some personal information from its members, including name, street address, email address, phone number and volunteering interest. This information is used to maintain a database of members in order to mail/email the Guild Newsletter and other Guild information, and to contact members regarding volunteering activities.

By providing your personal information, you consent to receive correspondence that we believe to be of interest to you. The Shaw Guild contacts its Members several times a year to obtain feedback, update our records and offer the opportunity to become more closely associated with The Shaw Guild

The information collected is made available to the Guild Executive and Guild Conveners in order to perform their functions and will be shared with The Shaw Festival on a need-to-know basis for regulatory compliance.

Members' personal information is never sold for marketing purposes.

For more information about PIPEDA (Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act) visit the website of the Privacy Commissioner of Canada www.priv.gc.ca/en/.
